BUTTE, ANACONDA PLAYERS PICK UM TO PURSUE FOOTBALL CAREERS

MISSOULA---

Casey Reilly, a 5-10, 184-pound halfback from Anaconda Public High School, and Mick Dennehy, 5-10, 165-pound quarterback for Butte Public's 1967 AA state champions, will enroll at the University of Montana this fall on football scholarships.

UM grid assistant Jack Elway made the announcement Thursday.

He described Reilly as "perhaps the hardest hitting halfback in Montana last fall," and credited him with possessing tremendous desire. Reilly was an All-Conference player for the Copperheads last fall.

"It's difficult to find someone who likes the game of football as much as Casey does," Elway pointed out.

Dennehy, who can also play defensive halfback, is described as a great leader with lots of hustle and desire.

"Mick has the potential to be a real good college football player," Elway said.

Both Reilly and Dennehy signed while visiting the University of Montana campus last weekend with six other Montana high school grid stars.
